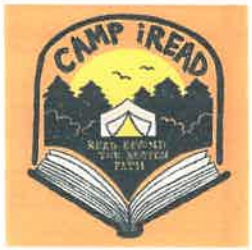
2022 SUMMER READING PROGRAM:



Our 2022 Summer Reading Program Camp iRead: Read Beyond the Beaten Path starts on June 13, with an outdoor kick off performance on June 16 by Henry the Juggler. Kids in grades PreK through grade 5 will keep track of their reading online or on paper logs and will earn badges for time reading and for attending programs. Every child who registers can pick up a goody bag at the library. Participants will also earn raffle tickets for prizes! Our Teen Reading Program also starts on June 13. Teens can participate in camp-themed programs at the library and read to earn gift packs and gift card prizes. Register for either program online at WaylandLibrary.Beanstack.org.

The Massachusetts Statewide Summer Library Program is funded by the Massachusetts Library System, the Boston Bruins, and the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners

SUMMER READING KICK OFF: HENRY THE JUGGLER

Henry the Juggler will kick off our Summer Reading Program with a zany performance! He juggles any number of balls, clubs, rings, members of the audience . . . Everything is accomplished wordlessly as Henry uses body language (and road signs!) to express himself. He will perform for us on the green lawn behind the library! We recommend bringing a blanket or chair.

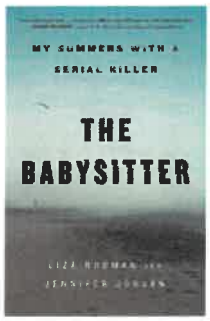
FOUR GREAT AUTHOR TALKS

Wednesday, July 13 7 pm

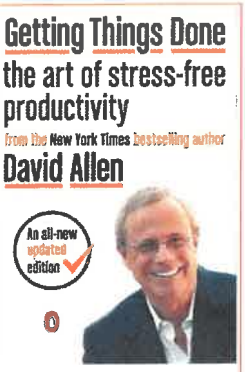
My Summers With a Serial Killer—A Massachusetts True-Crime Story

As the lonely child of a single, working mother, Liza Rodman found solace with her babysitter, a gentle handyman who made her feel safe. Decades later, she learned he had murdered numerous women. She and her award-winning co-author, Jennifer Jordan, tell her tale in The Babysitter, the culmination of her obsession with the case. This virtual event will be hosted by the Tewksbury Public Library and co-sponsored by the Wayland Public Library.



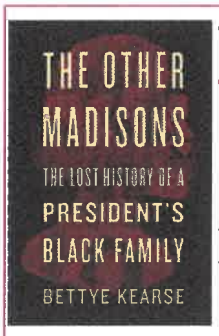
Thursday, July 14 12 pm

Getting Things Done



Getting Things Done
the art of stress-free productivity
from the New York Times bestselling author
David Allen
An all-new updated edition

David Allen's 35 years as a management consultant and executive coach has earned him worldwide and Forbes's recognition as one of the top five executive coaches in the U.S. His New York Times-bestselling book has sold millions of copies and has been published in thirty languages. Its "GTD" methodology has become a global phenomenon, taught by training companies in more than 90 countries.



Thursday, July 14 1 pm

The Other Madisons—The Lost History of a President's Black Family

According to the oral history passed down through her family, writer and retired pediatrician Bettye Kearse is a descendant of Coreen, an enslaved woman, and President James Madison, Coreen's half-brother as well as her enslaver. Dr. Kearse tells her family's story in this acclaimed memoir and an eponymous documentary film. Some 30 years in the making, The Other Madisons is both a personal family history and an homage to millions of silenced, invisible African-Americans. This virtual event will be hosted by the Ashland Public Library and co-sponsored by the Wayland Public Library.

Tuesday, July 26 7 pm

Headed Into the Abyss—The Story of Our Time and the Future We'll Face

In Headed into the Abyss, Brian T. Watson, architect and cultural critic, analyzes how ten different forces – capitalism, technology, the internet, politics, media, education, human nature, the environment, population, and transportation – are driving and shaping society all within the context of the complexities of communication via the Internet.

1000 BOOKS BEFORE KINDERGARTEN

1000 Books Before Kindergarten is an early literacy program that encourages parents and caregivers to read aloud to their children before they start kindergarten. Reading aloud helps build important literacy skills, sparks creativity and imagination, and promotes a lifelong love of books and reading! Read a book--any book!--to your child. Audiobooks, e-books, and books in other languages count, too! Make it a daily activity. Read 1000 books together before your child starts kindergarten and earn prizes as you go!
Please register online through Beanstack (waylandlibrary.beanstack.org) to track your progress, or pick up a paper log at the library!
